

Proverbs 22:6 NIV

Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it.

Proverbs 22:6 NLT

Direct your children onto the right path, and when they are older, they will not leave it.

Proverbs 22:6 NASB

Train up a child in the way he should go, even when he is old he will not depart from it.

Whatever path you want your kids to be on when they are old,
is the path you need to start them on today!

Biblical Discipline:

training that corrects, molds, or perfects the mental faculties or moral character of a person

Discipline to help them reach the end

Hebrews 12:11-13 NLT

No discipline is enjoyable while it is happening—it's painful! But afterward there will be a peaceful harvest of right living for those who are trained in this way. So take a new grip with your tired hands and strengthen your weak knees. Mark out a straight path for your feet so that those who are weak and lame will not fall but become strong.

Discipline to help them have a positive end

Proverbs 29:17

Discipline your children, and they will give you peace; they will bring you the delights you desire.

Discipline to keep them from a disastrous end

Proverbs 19:18 NIV

Discipline your children, for in that there is hope; do not be a willing party to their death.

Response

I will parent my children with the end in mind
