

Every comeback always starts as a setback!

Look for the setup within the setback!

Genesis 37:23-24,28 NLT

So when Joseph arrived, his brothers ripped off the beautiful robe he was wearing. Then they grabbed him and threw him into the cistern. Now the cistern was empty; there was no water in it...So when the Ishmaelites, who were Midianite traders, came by, Joseph's brothers pulled him out of the cistern and sold him to them for twenty pieces of silver. And the traders took him to Egypt.

Genesis 39:4 CEV

Potiphar liked Joseph and made him his personal assistant, putting him in charge of his house and all of his property.

Believe my setbacks are sent to prepare me, not punish me!

Genesis 39:19-20 NLT

Potiphar was furious when he heard his wife's story about how Joseph had treated her. So he took Joseph and threw him into the prison where the king's prisoners were held, and there he remained.

Genesis 41:9,14 NLT

Finally, the king's chief cup-bearer spoke up. "Today I have been reminded of my failure," he told Pharaoh...Pharaoh sent for Joseph at once, and he was quickly brought from the prison. After he shaved and changed his clothes, he went in and stood before Pharaoh.

See my setbacks as stepping stones not stumbling blocks!

Genesis 45:7-8 NLT

God has sent me ahead of you to keep you and your families alive and to preserve many survivors. So it was God who sent me here, not you! And he is the one who made me an adviser to Pharaoh—the manager of his entire palace and the governor of all Egypt.

Genesis 50:20 NLT

You intended to harm me, but God intended it all for good. He brought me to this position so I could save the lives of many people.
