

Discipline: equal parts reward and punishment

Correction: redirection to the right way of doing something

Training: promotes skill development and muscle memory

Proverbs 19:18 GNT

Discipline your children while they are young enough to learn. If you don't, you are helping them destroy themselves.

Proverbs 29:17 NASB

Correct your son, and he will give you comfort; He will also delight your soul.

Proverbs 22:6 ESV

Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it.

Discipline, correction, and training unlocks your child's potential!

Discipline teaches responsibility for and the consequences of their actions

Galatians 6:5,7-9 NLT

For we are each responsible for our own conduct...Don't be misled—you cannot mock the justice of God. You will always harvest what you plant. Those who live only to satisfy their own sinful nature will harvest decay and death from that sinful nature. But those who live to please the Spirit will harvest everlasting life from the Spirit. So let's not get tired of doing what is good. At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessing if we don't give up.

Correction reinforces the right way to live and follow God.

Psalms 1:1-3 NLT

Oh, the joys of those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or stand around with sinners, or join in with mockers. But they delight in the law of the Lord, meditating on it day and night. They are like trees planted along the riverbank, bearing fruit each season. Their leaves never wither, and they prosper in all they do.

Training develops skills that allow them to be successful later in life

Psalms 112 NLT

Praise the Lord! How joyful are those who fear the Lord and delight in obeying his commands. Their children will be successful everywhere; an entire generation of godly people will be blessed. They themselves will be wealthy, and their good deeds will last forever. Light shines in the darkness for the godly. They are generous, compassionate, and righteous. Good comes to those who lend money generously and conduct their business fairly. Such people will not be overcome by evil. Those who are righteous will be long remembered. They do not fear bad news; they confidently trust the Lord to care for them. They are confident and fearless and can face their foes triumphantly. They share freely and give generously to those in need. Their good deeds will be remembered forever. They will have influence and honor. The wicked will see this and be infuriated. They will grind their teeth in anger; they will slink away, their hopes thwarted.
